June 4-6, 2024 | College Station, TX
National Conference

HUNDREDS OF CAMPUS LEADERS WITH ONE GOAL: TO BRING THE GOSPEL TO EVERY CORNER OF THE UNIVERSITY

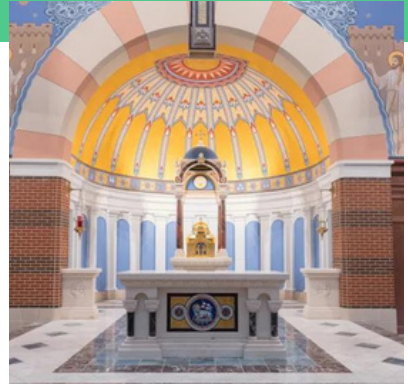

What if Catholic campus ministry could help save a generation of young people?

At CALLED24, campus ministers from around the country will experience three life-changing days of prayer, training, fellowship and encouragement.

Why sponsor CALLED24?

- To support Catholic campus ministry and the Church's mission within higher education.
- To help provide premiere training to those on the front lines of Catholic evangelization.
- To introduce your brand and organization to campus ministers and college leaders.
- To connect campus ministers with resources that they need to reach more students and influence more faculty members.
- To network with a rapidly growing sector of ministry within the Church.

THE IDEAL SETTING

St. Mary's Catholic Center, Texas A&M, College Station, TX

St. Mary's Catholic Center at Texas A&M stands out as an exceptional venue for hosting a national campus ministry conference, offering a unique blend of spiritual ambiance, modern facilities, and a vibrant community. Nestled within the heart of the Texas A&M University campus, St. Mary's provides a welcoming and inclusive environment that fosters a sense of community among attendees.

This will be a great opportunity to engage, network, and interact with campus ministry professionals who represent the best college, university, and diocesan teams nationally.
