Workshop 1

Evangelizing a New Generation: Understanding Our High School Teens and Best Practices for Ministering in Such a Time as This

We are no longer in Christendom. Now what? There is a need for a new evangelization, a re-presentation of the eternal truth of the Gospel, that speaks directly to the heart of this generation and their experience of the world. This workshop presents generational research and best practices for evangelization, in light of generational culture and the current secular landscape. It aims to increase generational cultural awareness, to provide a pathway for connection between the generations and to increase fruitfulness in evangelization efforts within high schools! You have been chosen for such an exciting time as this!

Quarterbacking the New Evangelization on Your High School Campus

This workshop equips high school campus ministers with strategies for engaging adult support for campus ministry, in an effort to move toward a sustainable structure and model that will take campus ministry beyond the campus minister. This introduction will help campus ministers to increase their support network, encourage the role of the laity among their colleagues through accompaniment and discipleship, and empower them to embrace their role as QB with confidence.

Thriving in Your Temperament while Building the Kingdom through High School Campus Ministry

Are you thriving or surviving? This highly practical workshop will increase self awareness and provide organizational tools and skills training for time management, prioritization, and delegation, in the context of the 4 temperaments and the uniqueness of a busy high school environment.
